

Impartiality Policy

SATRA operates a policy of impartiality in relation to its auditing and certification services.

We proactively manage any threat of conflict of interest, actual or perceived, affecting our certification and or registration services and understand the importance of impartiality, managing conflicts of interest and ensuring objectivity in carrying out our certification activities.

Our commitment to impartiality is monitored and administered by an independent “Impartiality committee” dedicated to overseeing the impartiality of our certification and registration services.